

Fix long split printing problem

If the download split printer is printing non-variable length splits determined by the number of controls on the course follow these steps. This corrects a problem where what should be the default option of “Cont Feed – with Break” has been lost. Close the read chips screen if it is open and then open it again. Follow the 3 steps shown below. Then click ‘OK’ on each screen in turn.

